

bonds shall vote a ballot "For Good Roads Bond Issue," and all qualified voters opposed to the issuing of the said bonds shall vote a ballot "Against Good Roads Bond Issue"; that it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of said county to have prepared at the expense of the county the necessary ballots for the election or elections to be held under the provisions of this act, and sent to the several election precincts in the respective townships in time for the holding of said election or elections: Provided, that the fees of the registrars, judges, and bailiffs of said election or elections shall be one-half of the fees allowed by the general election laws.

Ballots at expense of county.

Proviso: fees of election officers.

SEC. 4. If a majority of the votes cast in such election in any township named in section one of this act shall be "For Good Roads Bond Issue," and in every township aforesaid in which a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "For Good Roads Bond Issue," the result shall be declared and recorded in the records of the board of commissioners of said county; and after the expiration of sixty days from such entry upon the records the same shall not be open to attack, but the records shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the truth thereof; and at the first regular monthly meeting held after such election by the board of county commissioners of Stokes County the said board of county commissioners shall elect three electors for each township in which a majority of the votes cast therein at said election was "For Good Roads Bond Issue," residents of their respective townships, to be known as permanent roads commission of such respective township, and their term of office shall continue until their successors are elected and qualified, as will be hereinafter provided; and the said board of county commissioners shall have power to fill all vacancies by death, resignation, or otherwise, for any unexpired term: Provided, that at least one member of said permanent roads commission shall be a member of a different political party from that of a majority of said board of county commissioners, said member to be selected from the political party casting the next highest vote to that political party electing the majority of said board of county commissioners at the last preceding election of county officers. That as soon as practicable after the election of said members of the permanent roads commission they shall meet and organize by electing one of their members chairman of said commission, and another of their members secretary, and some other suitable person of their township who does not hold any county office, treasurer thereof, and shall pass such rules and regulations for their government as they shall deem best; and the said treasurer shall hold his office until the expiration of the term of office of the commission electing him, and until his successor shall have been elected by the permanent roads commission thereafter to be elected by the people of said township as hereinafter provided: Provided further, that the said permanent roads commission shall take an oath

Records conclusive after 60 days.

Township permanent road commission.

Terms of office.

Vacancies.

Proviso: political affiliations.

Road commission to meet and organize.

Plan of organization.

Term of treasurer.

Proviso: commissioners to qualify.